

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That said county commissioners are hereby authorized and required to sell said bonds to the best advantage to the highest bidder for cash at a public letting of said bonds to be held by said county commissioners; provided, however, that said commissioners shall not sell any bonds issued under this act for less than par; and provided, also, that the premium, if any, derived from the sale of said bonds shall be devoted to the payment of the interest thereon.

To be sold.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the money arising from the sale of said bonds issued under this act shall be used for the payment of the current expenses of said county provided for by the annual levy of the county commissioners of said county, made at their levy-laying term in the month of March, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and for no other purpose; and the expenses of said county thereafter, and including those embraced in the annual levy made in March, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, shall be paid as provided in section six of this act.

How to be issued.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That to facilitate and aid in paying the expenses of the county in cash, for which the bonds mentioned in this act are issued, that after the passage of this act all county taxes levied in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and hereafter, shall be paid in money, except as hereinbefore provided; and except when the taxpayer has a levy upon the books of the county commissioners in his favor, in which case he shall be at liberty, and it shall be lawful for him to use the full amount of taxes due by him to said county in payment of same the money due by the county to him; and the treasurer and collector shall receive a certificate of said indebtedness issued by the clerk of the commissioners of Prince George's county as payment of taxes as aforesaid.

Taxes—how paid.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners of Prince George's county shall in each year levy upon the assessable property in said county such sum of money as may be necessary to pay the interest on the outstand-

Levy tax.
