

License. ident of said county or corporation, to shoot or kill any wild water-fowl in or on any river, stream, creek, or any of the tributaries of the Potomac river within the limits of Charles county without having first obtained a license from the clerk of the circuit court for said county permitting the person named therein to shoot or kill said wild water-fowl for a period of twelve months from the date of the issuing of such license; and the person named therein shall pay to the said clerk for said license the sum of twenty-five dollars, which amount shall be turned over to the board of school commissioners by the said clerk for the use of the public schools of said county, and fifty cents to the clerk for his fee for issuing the said license.

Penalty. SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That any person violating the provisions of section five of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace in said county, shall pay a fine of twenty dollars for each and every offence, one-half of the said fine to be paid to the informer, and the remainder as hereinafter directed; and on failure to pay said fine shall be committed to the house of correction or the county jail for ten days, in the discretion of the justice of the peace trying the case.

Evidence. SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the possession by any person within said county of any partridges, quail, woodcock or rabbit, or wild water-fowl, without having complied with the necessary requirements of this act to enable him to take or kill the same, shall be considered prima facie evidence of the violations of the provisions of this act.

Fines—to whom paid. SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That all fines collected by any justice of the peace in said county for a violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be paid by said justice of the peace to the board of school commissioners for the benefit of the public schools of said county.

Duty of sheriff, etc. SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the sheriff of said county, and the constables of the several districts thereof, to arrest any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this act, and to take him or them
