

all that part of said tenth election district lying east of Fishing Bay, and known as Elliott's Island, and the voting place for said third or Elliott's Island precinct shall be at Elliott's Island.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners and Election Supervisors of Dorchester county are hereby directed to make all necessary provisions for voting in said precinct, as they are now required by law for other polling places in said county.

Provisions made for voting.

Approved April 9, 1898.

CHAPTER 419.

AN ACT to incorporate the National Park, Silver Spring and Hyattsville Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Francis H. Smith, Roger Bellis and Jackson H. Ralston, of Hyattsville, Maryland, Richard Morton, Jr., of Baltimore, B. Gilpin Smith, of Conowingo, Maryland, Lewis H. Finney, of Washington, D. C., John Leeds Bowie, John C. Davidson and H. Bradley Davidson, of Montgomery county, Maryland, or such of them as may accept the provisions of this Act, their associates and successors, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, under the name and style of the National Park, Silver Spring and Hyattsville Railroad Company, and by that name shall be known in law, and shall have perpetual succession, and have power to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended in all courts, whether in law or in equity, and may make and have a common seal, and alter and renew the same at pleasure, and shall have, enjoy and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges pertaining to corporate bodies and necessary for the purposes of this Act, and may make by-laws, rules and regulations consistent with the existing laws of the State of Maryland for the government of all under its authority, the management of its estate and properties, and the due and orderly conduct of its affairs, with full power to locate, construct, equip, maintain and operate a tramway or railroad line from a point on Rock creek, in Montgomery county, at or near the boundary of the District of Columbia, through the counties of Montgomery and Prince George's, to a point at or near Hyattsville, in Prince George's county, and such branch lines not exceeding twenty miles in length within said counties and the District of Columbia, as shall be determined upon by a vote of two-thirds corporate.

Body