

located in Baltimore city, and in trust as to the other thousand dollars thereof to establish a scholarship in Loyola College, located in Baltimore city.

Sanction and consent
given to
consent
bequests.

Fifth. To the bequest contained in the last will and testament of Winefride Martin, late of Baltimore city, deceased, of one thousand dollars to St. Mary's Industrial School for Boys, of Baltimore city, for the St. James Home for Boys, conducted by the Xarian Brothers, at 301 North High street, in the city of Baltimore.

Sixth. To the bequest contained in the last will and testament of Winefride Martin, late of Baltimore city, deceased, of two thousand dollars to the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Baltimore, for the time being, in trust for the Clerical Benevolent Association of Baltimore city.

Seventh. To the bequest contained in the last will and testament of Winefride Martin, late of Baltimore city, deceased, of ten thousand dollars unto the Carmelite Sisters of Baltimore City.

Eighth. To the bequest contained in the last will and testament of Winefride Martin, late of Baltimore city, deceased, of ten thousand dollars to the Baltimore Academy of the Visitation, located at the corner of Park avenue and Centre streets, in the city of Baltimore.

Ninth. To the bequest contained in the last will and testament of Winefride Martin, late of Baltimore city, deceased, of fifty thousand dollars to the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Baltimore, for the time being, in trust for the foundation of home for respectable ladies belonging to the Roman Catholic Church.

Tenth. To the bequest contained in the last will and testament of Winefride Martin, late of Baltimore city, deceased, of two thousand five hundred dollars to the St. Catharine's Normal Institute of Baltimore city, for the foundation of a perpetual scholarship therein.

Eleventh. To the bequest contained in the last will and testament of Winefride Martin, late of Baltimore city, deceased, of two thousand five hundred dollars to the Sisters of Charity for St. Joseph's Female Academy, near Emmitsburg, Maryland, to found a perpetual scholarship in said institution.

Twelfth. To the bequest contained in the last will and testament of Winefride Martin, late of Baltimore city, deceased, of a sum of five hundred dollars to St. Catherine's Normal Institute, and a like sum of five hundred dollars to the Sisters