

mittee or other than the political agent, as hereinbefore defined, who shall engage in receiving or disbursing money for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall be deemed a treasurer of a political committee within the meaning of this article, and shall be subject to all the requirements, obligations and penalties hereby provided for and in the case of such treasurer; provided, however, that the treasurer appointed under this Act by the State Central Committee of any party, or the treasurer appointed in any county or the city of Baltimore by the members of the State Central Committee for such county or city of any party, or the treasurer appointed by the city committee of Baltimore city of any party, may appoint one sub-treasurer for each voting precinct in the said county or city, as the case may be, which sub-treasurer is authorized to expend such money as may be placed in his hands by the treasurer appointing him for such purposes as are lawful under the provisions of this Act and for no other purpose, and it shall be the duty of every such sub-treasurer, within ten days after every election or primary election, to make a report in writing under oath to the treasurer appointing him, stating in detail the amount of money placed in his hands by the said treasurer and for what purposes the said money was expended by him and to whom paid; and it shall be the duty of every such treasurer to file the report of every sub-treasurer appointed by him along with and as a part of the account and statement required to be filed by such treasurer under the provisions of Section 167 of this Act. Any person or persons violating or failing to comply with any of the provisions of this section or of the preceding section of this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than three hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or imprisoned for not more than two years, or both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court.

SEC. 164. Any person nominated as a candidate for public office, or a candidate for any nomination for public office, may make a voluntary payment of money to any treasurer or political agent, subject to the provisions and restrictions of this Act and for any of the purposes permitted by this Act, and for no other purposes, and no person other than such a candidate shall, to aid or promote the success or defeat of any political party or principle or of any proposition submitted to vote at any public election, or of any candidate for public office, or of any candidate for nomination as such, within six months prior to any such election, make a payment or contribution of money or property or incur any liability or promise any valuable thing to any person other than to the treasurer or political