

tary of the commission. Said commission shall also keep books showing in detail all expenditures of money in every county of the State in connection with the establishment, improvement or maintenance of roads, and in connection with all work whatsoever of the commission, which books and records shall be open to the inspection of any taxpayer of the State at any time. No member of said commission shall become pecuniarily interested in any contract for work done or materials provided in connection with any of the work of said commission. The commission shall at the time of its organization, as aforesaid, and thereafter from time to time, adopt such by-laws and rules of procedure for the conduct of its business as it may deem necessary. It shall annually compile and publish maps and statistics relating to the public roads of the State and showing the progress and status of the work done or entered upon by it and separately for the several counties. All maps, plans and statistics made, collected and compiled under its discretion shall be preserved in its office and shall be open to the inspection of any taxpayer of the State. All bills or claims on account of any of the work of the said commission or in any way relating to its duties or transactions shall be passed upon by the commission at a meeting of its members, and no claim involving the expenditure of more than fifty dollars, and no contract involving a larger expenditure than fifty dollars, shall be allowed or made except by a majority vote of all members of the commission at a meeting thereof; all contracts, agreements, grants, licenses made or entered into by the commission shall be recorded in books kept for that purpose, which shall always be open to the inspection of the public. It shall be the duty of the members of the commission to travel over and personally inspect the public highways in the several parts of the State and the work being done on the same, in order that they may have, as far as possible, personal knowledge of the requirements of the several sections of the State in reference to the matter of roads as well as of the progress from time to time of the work of said commission.

32b. The commission created under this Act is hereby authorized and directed to include in its work of improving the system of main roads of the State, the improvement of such portions of the main roads selected by said commission as a part of such system as lie inside the limits of the city of Baltimore, up to the old city limits, provided that on completion of such improvements, the portions of the roads so improved within the city limits shall be city streets under the provisions of the city charter. The said commission, in addition to the powers hereinbefore mentioned, shall have full powers and be
