

bottles or twelve quarts each, but in no case to be drunk on the premises; distillers and brewers shall require no licenses; wholesale dealers and jobbers, other than wholesale druggists, shall be entitled to receive a license as such, to sell as above stated and not otherwise, upon applying directly to the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas and paying to him the sum of five hundred dollars for the twelve months beginning on May 1, 1908; the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars for the twelve months beginning on May 1, 1909; and the sum of one thousand dollars for the twelve months beginning on May 1, 1910, and for each succeeding term of twelve months beginning on the first day of May in each and every year thereafter. But any person, co-partnership or corporation (other than brewers, who as hereinbefore stated, require no license), may be licensed to conduct a bottling business by selling fermented liquors only, and in quantities or packages not less than twelve pint bottles, by applying direct to the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas and paying him the sum of eighty dollars for the twelve months beginning on May 1, 1908; the sum of one hundred and twenty dollars for the twelve months beginning on May 1, 1909, and the sum of one hundred and sixty dollars for the twelve months beginning on May 1, 1910, and for each succeeding term of twelve months, beginning on the first day of May in each and every year thereafter. Wholesale druggists shall be entitled to receive a license as such, to sell under the same conditions as above stated with respect to distillers, brewers and wholesale dealers or jobbers, other than wholesale druggists, and not otherwise, upon applying directly to the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas and paying to him the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars. But no such wholesale druggist's license to sell wines, spirituous or fermented liquors shall be given to any applicant who, or whose concern, generally keeps on hand, or, in the case of application for the first time, expects to generally keep on hand at the principal season of sale, an amount of stock of wine, spirituous or fermented liquors in excess of five per centum of the total amount of stock of goods, wares and merchandise generally kept on hand by him, or the said concern, at the principal season of sale, and every applicant for such wholesale druggist's license shall, in addition to the statement on oath now required by law of applicants for trader's licenses as to their total stock of goods, wares and merchandise, state to the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas on oath to be administered by the clerk, the amount of said applicant's stock of wines, spirituous or fermented liquors generally kept on hand by him, or the concern in which he is engaged, at the principal season of sale, or, if said applicant shall not have previously engaged
