

SEC. 18. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any doctor or physician to issue a prescription for intoxicating liquors, except in writing, or in any case unless the person for whom it is issued is actually sick, or such liquor is required as a medicine. Every prescription for intoxicating liquors shall contain the name and quantity of liquor prescribed, the name of the person for whom prescribed, the date on which the prescription is written and directions for use of the liquor so prescribed, and it shall be unlawful for any doctor or physician who has been convicted of issuing verbal prescriptions for intoxicating liquors or of issuing prescriptions for intoxicating liquor, knowing the same to be for use as a beverage, or of issuing prescriptions that do not in form comply with this Act, thereafter to issue any prescription for intoxicating liquor for any purpose for a period of two years from the date of such conviction. Every prescription issued in violation of the provisions hereof shall be held to be an unlawful selling, and on conviction therefor the person issuing same shall be punished accordingly.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to forbid or prevent the sale within anti-saloon territory by a druggist or pharmacist of liquor for medical or sacramental purposes only, or of alcohol for medicinal, chemical or mechanical purposes only; not to be drunk upon the premises under any circumstances; provided, the following requirements are fully complied with and such druggist or pharmacist in good faith shall keep a true and exact record in a book which he shall provide for the purpose, in which shall be entered at the time of every sale of intoxicating liquors made by him, or in or about his place of business to all persons whomsoever, the date of such sale, the name of the purchaser, who shall also sign his name in said book as a part of said entry, and his residence, stating the street and house number if there be such, the kind, quantity and price of such liquor, the purpose for which it was sold; and when the sale is for medicinal purposes, the book shall also contain the name of the physician issuing the prescription therefor. Such prescriptions shall be cancelled by writing on it the word "cancelled," and the date on which it was presented and filed, and kept on file. No prescription shall be filed a second time. Such book shall be in form substantially as follows:

Date	Name of Purchaser	Residence	Kind and Quality	Purpose of Use	Price	Name of Physician	Signature of Purchaser
------	-------------------	-----------	------------------	----------------	-------	-------------------	------------------------
