

election, said places to be selected by the Supervisors of Elections of said county, and said notice to be given at least two weeks prior to the day of election in at least three newspapers published in said county, and also by printed handbills to be set up at some place in the said districts and parts of districts affected by this Act and perform all of the duties as to elections prescribed by the law of elections now in force; but if for any reason said notice be not given or not be given in conformity with this section such failure or the failure of the sheriff to perform any act specified by law such failure or failures shall not affect this Act or the provisions thereof.

SEC. 3. That the Supervisors of Election of Prince George's county shall at least two weeks prior to said day of election appoint in each of the afore-mentioned districts four persons who are registered voters in said districts or residing in said parts of said districts who shall be the judges of election, and also appoint two registered voters registered and living as aforesaid as clerks for said election, who shall be notified and shall qualify as required by the law then in force in Prince George's county governing general elections; and said supervisors of Elections shall prepare a ballot of uniform size and have same printed for the purposes of said election at least one week before the said day of election, on which ballot shall be the words printed: "For the sale of Spirituous or Fermented Liquor" and "Against the sale of Spirituous or Fermented Liquor," and any voter wishing to vote for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors shall make a cross-mark in the square opposite the words "For the sale of Spirituous or Fermented Liquor," and any voter wishing to vote against the sale of spirituous or fermented liquor shall make a cross-mark in the square opposite the words "Against the sale of Spirituous or Fermented Liquor;" and the conduct of said election shall be under the control of the Supervisors of Election of Prince George's county, as far as practicable under the provisions of article 33 of the Public General Laws of Maryland as the same is amended by the Act of 1906, chapter 544, so far as the same is consistent with the provisions of this Act, so as to ascertain the wishes of the voters registered and resident in the portions of said county affected by this Act. All saloons in said county situated within the limits affected by this Act shall remain closed on said election day and no intoxicating liquor shall be sold or dispensed on said day under the penalties imposed by section 3 of article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws, the whole of said article 33 of the Public General Laws of Maryland being made a part of this Act so far as the same is not inconsistent. The said supervisors in appoint-