

reason of military or naval service, to make whatever payment or satisfaction may be necessary in order to satisfy, release or discharge such judgment, order or decree, or other power or right as aforesaid.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That any suspension or stay granted under the terms of this Act may be for such period of time as the court granting the same shall deem proper, but in no event for a period longer than duration of the present war, and six months thereafter; and shall be upon such conditions, as to the giving of bond or other security or undertaking, or as to the making of any deposit, or as to any other matters or things, which the said court may deem proper to impose as conditions of such suspension or stay.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the court in which any suspension or stay may be thus granted, shall have the power, in its discretion, to rescind such suspension or stay at any time that said court deems that the interests of justice would be thereby subserved, such rescission to be upon such conditions, to date from the expiration of such time and to be predicated upon such notice, by service upon each person interested, or his attorney or representative, or by publication, as the court may deem proper; and thereafter such judgment, order or decree, or such power or right as aforesaid, may be executed or enforced as if the same had not been suspended or staid, but subject, however, to any conditions which the court may impose as incident to such rescission.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That upon the termination of the period of any suspension or stay granted hereunder, such suspension or stay, if not continued or renewed, shall cease, and thereafter such judgment, order or decree, or such other power or right as aforesaid, may be executed or enforced as if the same had not been suspended or staid, but subject, however, to any reasonable conditions which the Court may deem proper to impose in the interests of justice.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That no judgment, order or decree, and no right or power as aforesaid, shall be suspended or staid under the terms of this Act, except as to any person or persons entitled as aforesaid to the benefits of this
