

the license is issued, except when confined in the kennel or when hunting in charge of an attendant.

196. The county commissioners of the several counties shall prepare, and furnish annually to the county treasurer, Clerk to County Commissioners in Counties having no Treasurer, and to the Justices of the Peace of the respective counties metal tags to be given to the owners of dogs when such owners shall pay the license fee for said dogs. Such tags shall be of metal, and shall have serial number corresponding with the number on the license issued to said owner, as provided in the preceding section of this Act. Such tags shall also have impressed thereon the calendar year for which such tag is issued, and shall not be more than one inch in length, and shall be equipped with a substantial metal fastening device. The general shape of said tag shall be changed from year to year, and the tags furnished owners of kennels shall have the word "kennel" thereon. If any such tag is lost it shall be replaced by the county treasurer, or Justice of the Peace, upon application by the person to whom the original license was issued, upon production of such license and payment of a fee of twenty-five cents.

197. Any Justice of the Peace of the several counties after having received and receipted for necessary blanks and tags, may issue such dog licenses and tags in like manner as prescribed for the issuance of licenses by the county treasurer. When a license is issued by the Justice of the Peace, the said Justice of the Peace may retain as his fee for the issuance of said license, reporting the same, and remitting payment therefor, to the County Treasurer, or Clerk of the County Commissioners in Counties having no Treasurer, the sum of twenty-five cents. Such report and remittance shall be made by the Justice of the Peace at the end of each month; whereupon the county treasurer shall make a record of, and otherwise treat, said license as though it had been issued from his office, except that he shall also note upon his record the name of the Justice issuing the license. Every Justice of the Peace shall deliver the book or books from which he had issued licenses, together with the stubs therein properly filled out and showing the names of each license and the number of the license issued to him, to the county treasurer or Clerk to the County Commissioners in Counties having no Treasurer before the first day of July of each year.

Any person becoming the owner, after the first day of July of any year, of any dog six months old or over which has not
