

673. Every applicant applying for a license to sell intoxicating liquors in said City shall file with the said Board a petition for such license, and the Board shall cause notification of such petition to be published three times in three newspapers of general circulation in said City, to be designated by said Board; the first publication to be not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days before the time fixed by the Board for action on said petitions.

674. Said petition shall contain (1) the name and residence of the applicant and how long applicant has resided there; (2) the particular place for which a license is desired, designating the same by street and number, if practicable, and, if not, by such other apt description as definitely locates it; (3) the kind of license desired, whether a saloon license, hotel license, retail grocer's license, wholesale druggist's license, wholesale trader's license, or license for a bottler of fermented liquors; (4) the name of the owner of the premises upon which the business is licensed to be carried on; (5) a statement that the applicant is a citizen of the United States, and that it is necessary for the accommodation of the public that the place should be licensed; (6) that the applicants have not, nor has any of them, had a license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in this State revoked, or, if the applicants or any of them shall at any time have had a license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in this State revoked, a full statement shall be made of the circumstances attendant upon such revocation, nor has been convicted of any crime within one year preceding the filing of said petition; (7) that applicant will not knowingly sell, or allow to be sold in the said house or on the said premises any such liquors on Sunday or on election days, or to minors at any time, or allow a minor to drink in said house or on said premises; that applicant will not keep or permit to be kept a bawdy house in the said house or on the said premises, or the gathering together or the visitation to said house or premises of women for lewd or immoral purposes; (8) this petition must be verified by the affidavit of the petitioner, made before a Notary Public; if any false statement is made in any part of said petition, the license granted or issued to the petitioner may be at any time upon proof revoked by the Board of Liquor License Commissioners and the petitioner shall also be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon indictment and conviction thereof, his license shall be revoked by the Criminal Court of Baltimore City or by the
