

Retirement Fund of Baltimore County becoming members of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore City, upon their becoming members of the teaching force of Baltimore City, in pursuance of any Act extending the limits of Baltimore City.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That there is hereby added to the Revised Charter of Baltimore City a new Section, to follow Section 102S, to be numbered 102T and to read as follows:

102T. Any teacher, now a member of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County, under Chapter 83 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1912, who shall become a member of the teaching force of Baltimore City in pursuance of any Act extending the limits of Baltimore City, shall receive full credit for the number of years he or she shall have taught in the public schools of Baltimore County, to the same extent and with the same rights as if he or she, as the case may be, had taught in the public schools of Baltimore City, and shall be entitled to become a member of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore City, established in pursuance of the Act of 1908, now Sections 102A to 102S of the Revised Charter of Baltimore City, by virtue of transferring to said fund the amount he or she shall have paid to the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County; and the Board of Estimates of Baltimore City shall provide in the Ordinance of Estimates for paying to the City Retirement Fund for each of such teachers the difference between the sum obtained from the said Retirement Fund of Baltimore County and the sum needed to meet the requirements of the said Retirement Fund of Baltimore City.

Approved April 10th, 1918.

CHAPTER 297.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the Commissioners of Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland, to borrow money on the credit of said town for the purpose of paying the costs of a Public Street already erected in Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland, from what is known as the Brick Arch on Washington Avenue to the stone road at the Northeast corner of the Voshell House and pay to Lillian Urie, the sum of
