

the County Commissioners may proceed to pass judgment thereon and affirm or reject the same or order it to be amended in their discretion, or may continue said proceedings over to their next meeting and so on from time to time so long as they may think proper.

Section 206G. The said examiners shall be entitled to compensation for their services and attendance not exceeding two dollars per day to be ascertained by the County Commissioners, with all charges arising from the survey or attendance to witnesses and other expenses shall be paid by the County Commissioners.

Section 206H. In all cases where the County Commissioners shall adjudge that a road shall be opened as provided for in the preceding sections they shall at the usual time for levying taxes, levy on the assessable property of the county a sum sufficient to open said road, and also sufficient to pay the damages awarded, and it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners to open said road as soon as can conveniently be done.
