

of their office, and may commit for trial any person committing at or around their place of registration any breach of the peace or other offense forbidden by this article; they shall have the power to issue any of said summonses, attachments or commitments when sitting in any county in this State to the sheriff of said county or to any constable thereof and when sitting in the City of Baltimore to marshal of police or to any police officer of said city; all such processes shall be served by said respective officers in the same manner as if they were issued by a court of record having jurisdiction of the subject-matter or by a justice of the peace exercising police powers within such respective jurisdictions. The sheriff or constable in any county of this State who shall serve any of said processes shall receive the same fees in like manner as it is or may be by law provided that he shall receive fees in other State cases, but no officer of police in the City of Baltimore shall charge or receive any fee for any service performed under this article; and no officer of registration shall charge or receive any compensation for any service performed under this article except such as is herein provided. The board of police commissioners for the City of Baltimore shall detail police officers and the sheriffs for their respective counties shall detail deputy sheriffs, by them appointed, sufficient in number to preserve order at the places in said City of Baltimore and in said respective counties where said officers of registration may be sitting for the discharge of the duties of their respective offices: Provided, however, that in Anne Arundel County it shall not be mandatory for the sheriff of said county to detail deputy sheriffs for duty in connection with registration in said county.
