SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 54 to Section 100B, inclusive, of Article 20 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Somerset County," subtile "Crisfield," and all amendments and additions thereto, except such as are hereinafter excepted, and Chapter 493 of the Acts of 1892, and Chapter 296 of the Acts of 1894, and Chapter 262 of the Acts of 1896, and Chapter 191 of the Acts of 1904, and Chapter 564 of the Acts of 1904, and Chapter 215 of the Acs of 1906, and Chapter 64 of the Acts of 1908, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments and additions to read as follows:

54. The inhabitants of the City of Crisfield, Somerset County, are hereby constituted a body corporate, by the name of the Mayor and Council of Crisfield, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and have all powers incident to or that may attach to a municipal corporation, and upon the acceptance of this charter the new corporation shall have and possess all the rights, powers, property and duties devolving upon the Commissioners of Crisfield, except as the same may be changed by this Act.

55. The taxable and corporate limits of said City of Crisfield shall comprise the territory now known as "Crisfield," to wit: Beginning at a post on Long Point, on Little Anramesses river; thence running eastward across said river to a post on what is known as Hammock Point; thence by a straight line touching the southeast corner of Henry F. Jewitt's house to the new county road from the High School to Asbury Church; thence by a straight line to a point on the east side of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad and the north side of the new county road through the land of James H. Ward to Mariners' Church, where the said railroad and county road cross each other, and from the said intersection by the dividing line between Crisfield and Lawson's Election Districts, running
