

agent under any ordinance passed under the provisions of this section shall be finally ratified ten days' notice at least shall be given in one newspaper published in said city of the time when said assessment is to be finally ratified, and an opportunity shall be afforded all persons interested therein to appear and be heard. Any person interested feeling aggrieved by the passage of any ordinance or any assessment made in pursuance thereof under the provisions of this section shall have the right within ten days after the passage of an ordinance or final ratification of any assessment of an appeal to the Circuit Court for Somerset County.

90. No sidewalk, street or alley shall be graded or the grade thereof changed or altered in any manner by anyone except on a plan made by a competent surveyor and submitted to, and approved by, said Mayor and Council. If any person shall change the grade of any sidewalk, street, or alley as established, or as it may be hereafter established, except as aforesaid, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five dollars and stand committed to the County Jail until the fine and costs are paid; and, in addition thereto, shall pay all costs and expenses of restoring said sidewalk, street or alley to its original grade.

91. The year for improving and repairing the streets, lanes, alleys and thoroughfares of said city under this section shall be reckoned from the first day of June, inclusive, in one year to the first day of June in the next year; every able-bodied male person between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years who has resided in said city for four months shall be bound to work on said streets, lanes, alleys and thoroughfares for one day in each and every year as the year is herein defined, and if any person who is liable to render such service fails to attend as directed on notice from the Chief of Police, or who shall appear and fail or refuse to work and render proper service as by the person or persons supervising the work he is required and instructed to do, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before a justice of the peace of Somerset County or in the Circuit Court for Somerset County, he shall be fined one dollar, and shall be adjudged to pay fine and costs and stand committed until fine and costs are paid; at or about the first day of January in each year, beginning with the year 1911, the clerk of the Council, with the Mayor and Council, the Chief of Police and other police, shall make out a list of all persons who on the first day of the next June will be liable to render service, and as soon as may reasonably be convenient this list shall be delivered to the Chief of Police, and he shall call on each person named therein to pay the sum of one dollar; each