

approve shall become effective and those which he shall not approve shall be reconsidered by the Council in the same manner and form as hereinbefore prescribed in this section, and shall become effective if again passed over the veto of the Mayor by the vote as above prescribed for the passage over the veto of the Mayor of entire ordinances or resolutions. The mode and manner of procedure of the Council and of the Mayor in the matter of the veto of one or more distinct items of appropriation in any ordinance or resolution shall be the same as the mode and manner of procedure prescribed in this section for the passage of an entire ordinance or resolution over the veto of the Mayor.

SEC. 71A. The Mayor shall duly and faithfully execute all ordinances, resolutions or orders of the Mayor and Council in a prompt and reasonable manner. In the event of the failure or refusal of the Mayor to execute or have executed any ordinances, resolutions or orders of the Mayor and Council which have been regularly approved, it shall be competent and proper for the Council, by order or resolution, to have the matter in hand properly executed in accordance with the true intent of the resolution or order, and it shall have the same force and effect as if it had been regularly done and executed by the Mayor. And the town treasury shall be liable therefor in settlement of any expenses incurred.

SEC. 80A. The Clerk of the Circuit Court and Register of Wills for Talbot County shall, on or before the first Monday in June of each year, transmit to the office of the town clerk of Easton a list of all alienations of property in Easton recorded in his office since June first of the preceding year, which list shall show the property alienated and the consideration for the same, so as to enable the Mayor and Council to assess the parties to whom the property is conveyed, and the said Clerk and Register of Wills shall be allowed ten cents for each alienation, to be paid by the Mayor and Council of Easton.

SEC. 83. All books, documents and papers, accounts, credits and deposits belonging to said town clerk's office or in the custody of said Council, shall be delivered up and transferred by him to his successor in office when such successor is duly appointed and qualified, and the newly appointed clerk, when duly qualified, shall be empowered and required to enforce payment of such taxes as are due and owing at the time of transfer made, in the same manner as his predecessor could have done; and he shall have all the powers and authority in law with which his predecessor was clothed for that purpose, and the bond of the newly appointed clerk shall become responsible for the proper collection and accounting of such
