

REV. ALBERT J. MITCHELL.

Rev. Albert J. Mitchell, the pastor of Ames Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Carey and Baker streets, is a product of the public schools of Florida and New York City, and is an honor graduate from Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., class of 1908. Prior to his entrance into the Ministry he was actively identified with the work of St. Mark's Methodist Episcopal Church, New York City, serving as President of the Epworth League for many years, and was the organizer and teacher of the largest colored Bible Class in the City of New York. His work in this representative Church of Methodism, and the several rural appointments in Virginia and Maryland which he served, gives him peculiar fitness for the responsibilities which he assumes as pastor of this important charge. He has impressed himself upon the community as being a strong and resourceful leader, broad-minded and sympathetic in his makeup, and he is deeply interested in social reforms. A special feature of work initiated under his leadership at Ames is the Children's Church, which meets every Friday at 4.30 P. M. He has been a very successful pastor.
