

MRS. ELIZER BRUCE.

A REMARKABLE CHARACTER.

Mrs. Elizer Bruce, the pride of the District of Columbia, has nearly reached the century mark. Her vitality is good and she reads her Bible daily. She is a grandmother to four generations. Her children are as follows: Wm. H. Bruce, door-keeper of Supreme Court; J. Carl Bruce, proprietor of one of the best white barber shops in the District; E. M. Bruce, assistant to his brother Carl; Mrs. Clarence Malvin, Mrs. Laura V. Frittle and Miss Mattie Bruce (deceased), who was one of Washington's most popular school teachers.

TRULY HATCHETT.

First Colored Notary Public.

WILLIAM ANDERSON.

Mr. William Anderson, Principal of the new Paul Laurence Dunbar School, Caroline and Jefferson Sts., is one of the best-known and most active of Baltimore's school men. He is an official of Grace Presbyterian Church, President of the Schoolmasters' Club of Baltimore, Treasurer of the Equitable Improvement Association of East Baltimore, and for many years was a Director of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Anderson is a graduate of the local High School, Class of 1899.

MISS ANNE E. SMITH.

Miss Anne E. Smith, a native Marylander and product of the Baltimore Public School system. Miss Smith is an active worker along all lines for public good. This fact is attested to by her ardent and effective work in our charitable and social service organizations.