

ASHBIE W. HAWKINS.

Ex-President of National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Baltimore Branch. Lawyer Hawkins is a most fearless champion of justice. He is a scholar, a writer and orator. He figured conspicuously in the fight against segregation in Baltimore and is largely responsible for the final decision handed down by the Supreme Court a few months ago.

The Baltimore colored populace has shown its appreciation of his unselfish work by giving him two testimonial banquets, and a beautiful testimonial Masonic ring.

MR. THOMAS R. SMITH.

Mr. Thomas R. Smith, of Baltimore, is the proprietor of the largest colored Hotel in the South. He is probably the best known man of his race in this country. Mr. Smith is of a genial and charitable nature. His hospitality is known to all denominations, and his friends are legion.
