

HONORS HIS RACE.

James A. Mitchell, of St. Paul, Minn., Stood Third.

James A. Mitchell, a colored American of St. Paul, Minn., passed the St. Paul Detective Force examination with honors, Dec. 1916. He was third among 50 white competitors and only 8 of which passed. He is a native of Alabama. A graduate of Mt. Meig's and Tuskegee Institutes. He served three years as a member of the 10th Calvary. Prior to his appointment he was employed by the Heberle Motor Co. of St. Paul, as a mechanic. He married Miss Minnie Gaskins, of Chicago, Ill., formerly of Washington, D. C., who is an amible and charming lady. Mrs. Mitchell is the niece of Mr. R. W. Coleman, who is the Editor and Compiler of this book, and is the cousin of Judge Robt. H. Terrell, of the Municipal Court, Washington, D. C. Detective Mitchell has been very successful.

JAMES A. MITCHELL

LET US HONOR THEM

Senator Joseph I. France and his honor Mayor Broening are two gentlemen that every true-hearted American citizen cannot too highly appreciate. They are Christian men of high moral characters whose keynotes are loyalty to the flag, freedom and justice for all.

IN UNION, THERE IS STRENGTH

Let us all join hands and give three cheers for Prof. Mason A. Hawkins, principal of the Colored High School, who is doing all he can to elevate the standard of the school, and through the cooperattion of the fathers, mothers and friends will soon have a new one.
