

E. B. TAYLOR

E. B. Taylor, whose cut shows above, is the one colored appointee made by former Mayor Preston one of the Board of Managers of the House of Reformation for Colored Boys at Cheltenham. During the past year he has gone into the banking business, as senior member of the firm of Taylor & Jenkins, and is now about to acquire a new large banking house, and they have purchased a site for an East Baltimore Branch. He is president of the Morgan Building and Loan Association. Was made Alternate-at-Large to the Republican Convention at Chicago. His name was prominently mentioned as one of the two men considered for appointment to the School Board by Mayor Broening. He is still in the catering business, under the title of E. B. Taylor, Inc. A great deal of his success is due to the energy and constant encouragement of his wife, who was Miss Esther Shackelford of Richmond, Kentucky.

JOSEPH P. EVANS
