

JESSIE ELEANOR SHAW
Baltimore's Premier Pianist

Mrs. Jessie Eleanor Shaw, the daughter of the Reverend Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Johnson, is a musician of broad culture and exceptional skill. For many years she has been a consistent student of the piano at the New England Conservatory at Boston and a private student of some of the most renowned teachers of music. For years she has been the efficient organist of the Twelfth Street Baptist Church, Boston.

Mrs. Shaw is also a composer. In recent years she has appeared in piano recital in the finest music halls in Boston and elsewhere. She was lately presented in recital at Union Baptist Church, Baltimore, to a large and appreciative audience by the Music Committee of the Colored High School, of which she is an alumnus.
