

RETIRED LAWYER OF NATIONAL REPUTATION.

Archibald Grimke, lawyer, born in Charleston, S. C., August 17, 1849.

Lincoln University, A. M., 1872. LL. B., Harvard, 1874.

Editor of the Hub newspaper, Boston, 1883-1885. Writer on Boston Herald and Boston Traveler, 1891-1892. Trustee Westborough Insane Hospital and secretary of its board, 1884-1894.

U. S. Consul, Santo Domingo, 1894-1898.

President of American Negro Academy, 1903-19.

President emeritus since 1919.

Member of Authors' Club, London; American Social Science Assn.; President Frederick Douglass Memorial and Historical Assn. Trustee estate of Emmeline Cushing, Boston, for education of the colored race. Treasurer of Committee of Twelve for the advancement of the interest of the colored race.

Author: Life of William Lloyd Garrison, 1894; Life of Charles Sumner, 1892; also various pamphlets on the anti-slavery movements, African colonization and the advancement of the Afro-Americans. Vice-President Nat. Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. Authors' League of America awarded the Spingam Medal for 1919.

Address, 1415 Corcoran St., N. W., Washington, D. C.