

PROF. MASON A. HAWKINS

Mason Albert Hawkins received the degree of Ph.D. from the University of Pennsylvania this June, majoring in secondary education and educational administration. Dr. Hawkins was educated in the public schools of Baltimore, and received his A.B. degree from Harvard in 1901 and A.M. from Columbia in 1910. He is Principal of the Douglass High School.

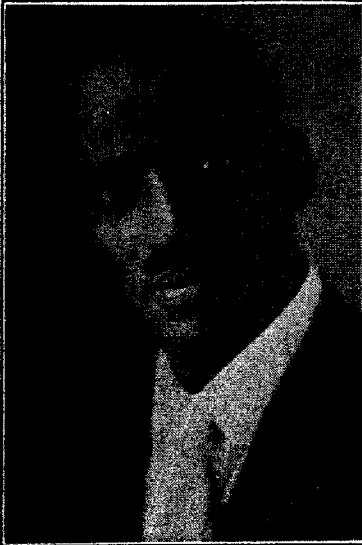

WILLIAM N. JONES

Managing Editor of the Afro-American.

The competency of Mr. William N. Jones, Managing Editor of the Afro-American, coupled with his superior journalistic ability, is given much credit for the standing of the Afro in the journalistic world.

Mr. Jones is well informed, positive, prompt and charitable; he is cooperative with all public agencies.

FRANCIS MARION WOOD

Director of Colored Schools of Baltimore. The man of the hour. Conscientious, just, amiable.

Prof. Francis M. Wood has just completed his fifth successful year as Director of the Colored Schools of Baltimore.

MISS PEARL C. GRAY

Miss Pearl C. Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gray, old residents of the city, is a graduate of the Commercial Department of Frederick Douglass High School, February, 1930.

Since her graduation, Miss Gray has rendered commendable service in her work in the office of the Baltimore Urban League. She has done a considerable amount of typewriting and has also assisted Mr. Robert W. Coleman, Manager of the Association for the Handicapped, greatly in his clerical work for the Association. Later she plans to attend College. She will be prepared for a responsible position in the business or pedagogical world.

Miss Gray's willingness to serve, her pleasing personality, with other outstanding qualities have gained her a number of influential friends.