

JAMES HUGHLETT CARTER

JAMES HUGHLETT CARTER

Born September 17, 1894, at what was then known as Ivy Mills, Baltimore County, Maryland, but which now comprises a portion of the campus of Morgan College.

Educated in the public schools of Baltimore, he graduated from the old Baltimore Colored High School and entered Morgan College in the fall of 1912. Upon completion of his college course in 1916, Mr. Carter was appointed private secretary to President Spencer.

During a period of twenty-one years with Morgan College he has successfully filled the posts of instructor, secretary, registrar, business manager—and at the last annual meeting of the College Trustees was named assistant to the President.

He is married and resides on the school grounds. Is a member of Omega Psi Fraternity and of Pi Lambda Psi Honor Society.
