D. J. THORNE,

VETERINARY SURGEON,

Having removed from his old stand in North St. has located himself in Front St. between Gay & Hitton, adjoining the Bull's Head Tavern, where he is prepared to treat Sick and Lame Horses, not as has been contemptuously styled "the Jargon of Science," but by the principles of Cause and Effect as taught by the true spirit of Natural Philosophy.

STEPHEN BOUIS,

West Baltimore Street above Green, North Side,

Has constantly a general assortment of Lamps, Lamp Glasses and Wicks; with Etherial and Camphine Oils. Also, Tin-Ware of every variety. He continues the old business of Roofing and Spouting. Bath Tubs and Fixtures put up according to the original plan of John Bouis, which has given entire satisfaction, having been in use many years. Lamps altered to burn Etherial Oil. Also a set of Lamps on hand for hire.
