

THREE CHEERS
FOR FRIEND KEEVIL,
THE HATTER!

A NEW SONG.

BY MISS MILFORD BARD.

TUNE.—"Vive la Compagnie."

The Song on the following pages is from the pen of that excellent writer the "MILFORD BARD;" considering it worthy, it is cheerfully given a place in this "Directory." Mr. Keevil's HATS, the poet's theme, are, we believe, worn to an almost unprecedented extent in this city and the surrounding country, not only from economy, but admired for the uniqueness of style, taste of finish, and durability of texture and workmanship, which characterize the article produced at this establishment. One excellent plan adopted by Mr. Keevil, and worthy of attention, is his

"BILL OF PRICES,"

AS IT IS OF ADVANTAGE

PARTICULARLY TO THE STRANGER!

Who by it is enabled to learn the price of any Hat he wishes to purchase, either

SILK, RUSSIA, CASSIMERE OR BEAVER,

But for information in that respect we refer the reader to the Advertisement on the preceding page, as it enables him to see what is fairly demanded of ALL, the CITY PURCHASER as well as the STRANGER; in fact, ALL share alike at this store, where there are

"NO TWO PRICES!"
