

WILLIAM LINTON,
 MANUFACTURER OF
STONE AND EARTHENWARE,
 FIRE BRICK, &c. &c.
POTTERY AND SALES-ROOM,
CORNER OF LEXINGTON AND PINE STREETS,

WHERE HE CONTINUES TO MANUFACTURE

Stone and Earthenware of every description; also, Chemical Stoneware, such as Receivers, to hold from ten to thirty gallons, with or without Spigots, with connecting pipes of all shapes. Plain and Ornamental Chimney Pots, Tobacco Pipe Heads, &c. &c.

Having given his personal attention to the manufacturing of the above wares, especially the Chemical Ware, (when in the firm of Perine & Linton,) he is now prepared to furnish manufacturing Chemists and the Trade with the above articles of a superior quality, at the lowest market prices.

MAULDEN PERINE'S
WESTERN
Stone and Earthenware Potteries,
No. 711 WEST BALTIMORE STREET.

All kinds of CHEMICAL STONEWARE, also Fire Bricks, Slabs, &c., for Coal Stoves. Orders by mail or otherwise promptly attended to.

E. & W. BENNETT'S
DOMESTIC QUEENSWARE POTTERY,
S. E. COR. CANTON AVENUE AND CANAL ST.

TWO SQUARES EAST OF THE PHILADELPHIA RAIL ROAD DEPOT,

BALTIMORE.

To whom have just been awarded a Silver Medal by the Maryland Institute for the best article of Ironstone, Cane and Fancy Rockingham Ware, either foreign or domestic. The Subscribers now wish to inform the Trade and Public generally, that they are fully prepared to supply all orders with a better article of the above named ware than can be obtained elsewhere.

The assortment of CANE or SALAMANDER WARE comprises Pitchers, Mugs, Bowls, Chambers, Oval and Round Dishes, Snuff Jars, Jelly Cans, &c. &c. The assortment of Rockingham consists in part of Plain and Embossed Tea Pots, Coffee Pots, Pitchers, Bowls, Mugs, Cake Moulds, Jars, Bed Pans, Spittoons, and numerous other articles, all of superior quality and finish.