

O. K. CHAMBERLIN'S
COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,
No. 127 Baltimore Street.

The object of this institution is to afford young men an opportunity of qualifying themselves thoroughly and practically for the various duties of the Counting House.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION CONSISTS OF

DOUBLE ENTRY BOOK-KEEPING,

And its application to every department of commerce and trade.

PENMANSHIP, COMMERCIAL LAW,

MERCANTILE CALCULATIONS, &c.

There being no vacation, applicants can enter the College at any time, and receive instruction individually.

REGULAR LECTURES

WILL BE DELIVERED ON :

COMMERCIAL LAW,

BY A MEMBER OF THE BALTIMORE BAR.

EXAMINATIONS

WILL BE HELD AT STATED PERIODS, AND

DIPLOMAS

Awarded to those who pass a satisfactory examination.

For particulars, terms, &c., call and get a circular.