

ANTHONY KUHN, No. 75 North Greene Street, and No. 2 N. Liberty St.

ONE DOOR FROM BALTIMORE STREET, FORMERLY CALLED MARKET STREET,
Offers at Wholesale and Retail, to Principals of Academies and Seminaries, and Professors, and to Merchants, and the public generally, SUPERIOR PIANOS, of every style and finish, at the shortest notice. Particular attention is paid to Pianos sent to private families. These Pianos are sent to all parts of the United States for examination and competition. All of which are warranted against any breakage calculated to materially injure the Instruments.

These Pianos are expressly manufactured for the Southern Market, with strong, entire Metallic or Iron Frames inside, which prevent warping or contraction of the cases, and keep the Instrument in tune longer than any other improvement yet known, the change of climate or weather having no effect upon them.

The beauty, sweetness, power and durability of these Pianos, is the cause of the steady and increasing demand for them. They have been extensively sold in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, North and South Carolina, in successful competition with those manufactured in New York or elsewhere. Low priced Pianos are always manufactured of inferior materials and by common workmen: but high priced ones just the reverse of all this. Nothing can convey a more incorrect idea of its real value than the outward appearance of a Piano: for two Pianos may be set before a gentleman or a lady, and both look so nearly alike that none but adequate judges could make a proper choice, yet one of those Pianos would be richly worth $300, whilst the other could be sold for $200. This arises from

Continued page 81.