

3. In the record book of deaths, the date of the death, the name of the deceased, the sex, the color, the condition, (whether single, widowed or married,) the age, the residence, the occupation, the place of death, the place of birth, the names and place of residence of the parents, the disease or cause of death, the place of burial and the date of record.

Date of death,
&c., to be recorded.

Sec. 2. Be it enacted, That the said record books provided for by the preceding section, shall be truly and regularly paged and alphabetically indexed, in the case of births, with the name of the child, (if it have a name,) and if it have no name, then with the name of the father, if its mother be a married woman, and if its mother be unmarried, then with the name of the mother, in the case of marriages with the names of both parties to said marriage, and in the case of deaths with the name of deceased, or if said deceased be an infant without a name, then with the name of the father or mother of said deceased infant.

Record book
to be paged, &c.

Sec. 3. Be it enacted, That parents shall give notice of the facts herein required, to the Clerk of the court aforesaid, of the county or city in which a birth or death may take place, every householder shall give such notice of every birth and death happening in his house, the eldest person next of kin shall give notice of the death of his kindred, the keeper of a prison, hospital, almshouse or other public institution, shall give notice of every birth and death happening among the persons under his charge; the person solemnizing or performing the marriage ceremony shall give such notice; any such person neglecting or refusing to give such notice for the space of six months after a birth, marriage or death, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five dollars.

Notice to be given Clerks.

Sec. 4. Be it enacted, That any physician having attended a person during his or her last illness, shall when requested, within fifteen days after the deceased of such person, forthwith furnish information of the duration of the last sickness, the disease of which the person died or cause of death, and the date of the decease as nearly as he can state the same.

Duty of Physician.