

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That said Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to appoint a Clerk and assign his duties, and allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper, and that all ordinances passed by the said Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall by their Clerk be entered in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, and shall be opened at all times for the inspection of any person interested.

Clerk may be appointed.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That all fines and forfeitures, under the ordinances of the said corporation, shall be recoverable as small debts are recoverable, out of court, before any Justice of the Peace.

Fines and forfeitures.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the limits of said town shall be defined as beginning at the county wharf, on Pocomoke river at New Town, thence up by and with the aforesaid river to the ferry causeway, thence by and with the same to a bridge over a gut twenty-one rods northwest of Col. William H. Merrill's house, thence north fifty-five and one half degrees east, one hundred and twenty-eight perches, to an old red oak standing on the northwest side of a road leading to Dr. Harris' house to Winter Quarter landing, thence running south twenty-two and one half degrees, east one hundred and seventy-four perches, thence south forty seven, west two hundred and seventy-three perches to a ditch on the edge of a red hill in William I. Long's field, thence north fifty-five degrees, west one hundred and seventy perches to the aforesaid river, thence up, by and with the same to the first beginning.

Metes and bounds.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have full power to make all such by-laws, regulations and ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws and Constitution of this State, as from time to time, they may deem wise, equitable and expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and prosperity of said town and its inhabitants, for the prevention, or removal of nuisances, preservation of health, and suppression of vice and immorality within the limits of the said town, and shall have power to lay an equal tax on the property within said limits to such an amount as may from time to time, be

Power to make by-laws, &c.