CHAPTER 231.

AN ACT to authorize the Commissioners of Howard county to lay out and create a new Primary School District in said county. Passed March 9, 1864.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioners of Howard county be and they are hereby directed to lay out and create a new Primary School District in said county, within the following metes and bounds: Beginning at a point on the Old Annapolis road, at or near the farm of James Shipley, and thence running through the lands of the late Major Charles Hammond to the county road leading by Bellows Spring church, down said road to Elkhorn branch; thence down said branch to the Brick church; thence along the road leading from said church to a small branch on Larkin Brown's farm; thence down said branch to the railroad; thence up the said railroad to Eliza Dorsey's switch; thence to the Washington turnpike at the ten mile stone; thence running through Theodore Tubman's and Baily's old farm and Carter's to Horatio Perine's; thence through those lands to a point on a county road, where a stone is planted near Henry Otter's farm, including the same; thence in a straight line to the place of beginning; the said County Commissioners are hereby empowered to alter or change the metes and bounds of said Primary School District, if, in their judgment, the public good require it. Authorized to lay out a new School District
