

the city of Baltimore, be and the same are hereby repealed, and the following sections enacted in lieu thereof.

Sec. 2. Be it enacted, That the fees of the inspectors of Salted Fish in the city of Baltimore, shall be as follows: for the inspection of each barrel, half barrel, or tierce of shad or mackerel fish, ten cents; for each barrel, half barrel or tierce of herring fish, four cents, and for each kitt or quarter of a barrel of shad, mackerel or herring fish two cents. Fees.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said inspectors shall upon each cask inspected by them mark with a brand their names, the word Baltimore, the name of the month and year in which inspected, and upon each barrel, half barrel, tierce, quarter of a barrel or kitt of fish the word spring; provided, they believe the said fish was caught in the spring of the year in which inspected. Mark with a brand. Proviso.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed. Repealed.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date its passage. In force.

CHAPTER 370.

AN ACT to amend Article ninety-four of the Public General Laws entitled, "Treasurer," by repealing sections eight and nine of said Article, and re-enacting said sections with amendments. Passed Mar. 10, 1864.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections eight and nine of Article ninety-four of the Public General Laws, relating to investing the interest of the sinking fund, and the application of surpluses in the State Treas- Sections re-pealed.