Passed March 10, 1862. AN ACT to regulate School Taxes in Caroline county, in cases where Children attend Schools in Districts other than those in which they reside.

Children may attend school in any district. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the children residing in any one of the School Districts in Caroline county, be and they are hereby permitted to attend the Schools in any other District, provided the parent or guardian of such children, shall pay to the Trustees of the School District in which the children may attend, an additional tax equal in amount to the tax paid in the District in which they reside, if the said additional tax is demanded by the said Trustees.

Proviso.

In force.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 286.

Passed March 10, 1862. AN ACT to amend the charter of the Baltimore and Harford Turnpike Company, entitled, a further supplement to the act of eighteen hundred and fifteen, chapter forty-eight, passed December third, eighteen hundred and sixteen.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by a certain inquisition had and held upon the Highway of the Baltimore and Harford Turnpike Company, as well as by the memorial of certain citizens, it doth appear that the said Baltimore and Harford Turnpike Company, have suffered their said Highway to be and remain in so grievously neglected a condition as to endanger the life and limb of travellers, and at certain seasons become almost impassable to vehicles of heavy draught; and
