

peake Beach Hotel Company, or the person designated by it, as many licenses to sell such liquors as may be required, and for such purposes they shall certify to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Calvert County the number of licenses so required, and the location of the premises in which each and every such license is to be used, together with the name of the owner or lessee thereof, if any. The clerk of said court shall thereupon issue to said Chesapeake Beach Hotel Company, or to the several lessees, the number of licenses designated, upon the payment of the sum of three hundred dollars for each and every license; and all such licenses shall be so issued as to begin on the first day of October of each year and to expire on the 30th day of September of the following year; provided, however, that from May 1st, 1914, to the 30th day of September, 1914, shall be a calendar year, for which the sum of $300.00 shall be paid for each license so granted, and the minimum license shall always be the sum of $300.00 a year or any fractional part of a year. The whole of the money received by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the licenses aforesaid shall be paid over by said Clerk to the State, as other license moneys are paid, as now provided by law, and when so paid over, the Comptroller of the Treasury shall draw his warrant upon the Treasurer in favor of the County Commissioners of Calvert County for all of said license fee except the proportion of such licenses as are due the State, in conformity to the provisions of Article 56 of the Code of Public General Laws or any amendments thereto for similar licenses, to be by said Commissioners applied to the payment of the principal and annual interest on certain Court House bonds to be issued by them, for the erection of a new Court House at Prince Frederick, Maryland, and after the payment of all of said bonds and the interest thereon to be applied to the permanent improvements of the public roads in said county. Any person or persons or corporation who shall violate any provisions of this Act, relating to the sale of liquors, wines, cordials or beer, shall be subjected to the same penalties for first and subsequent convictions as provided by the Public General Law for similar offenses. All licenses herein provided for shall be revoked by said Commissioners if minors are permitted to frequent or loiter about the places so licensed, or disreputable or disorderly persons are permitted to make the same places of customary visitation or resort. It shall be unlawful for any licensee under this Act to sell, barter or give intoxicating liquor to any intoxicated or disorderly person, or to any minor, except upon the written order of his or her parent or guardian; or to
