CHAPTER 767.

AN ACT to amend Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, title "Dorchester County," subtitle "Wild Fowl," by adding new Sections thereto, to follow Section 320, to be designated as Sections 321A-1, 321A-2, 321A-3, 321A-4, 321A-5, 321A-6, 321A-7 and 321A-8.

SECTION 321A-1. That it shall be lawful for the citizens of Hooper's Island or Election District No. 6 of Dorchester County to shoot wild fowl in or from sink boats or sink boxes in the waters of Honga River and Tar Bay, that part of Tar Bay north of a straight line drawn from the southern end of the bridge between the Upper and Middle Hooper's Island due west until it strikes the Barren Island Bar.

SEC. 321A-2. That it shall be lawful for the citizens of the Neck or Election District No. 8 of Dorchester County to erect, set or maintain booby blinds, stake blinds or similar artificial blinds for the purpose of shooting wild fowl on a line drawn from Mills Point in a northeastward direction in the waters of Brannocks or Trippes Bay to the southeast corner of what is known as the Great Flats, and from thence to what is known as Weir Point or Orchard Marsh, the said blinds above referred to not to be less than three hundred yards apart measured in a straight line.

SEC. 321A-3. That it shall be lawful for the citizens of Dorchester County in all of the waters of said County, and the waters used in common by Dorchester County with other Counties, except the waters of Brannocks Bay or Trippes' Bay and tributaries, regulation for shooting of wild fowl in being provided by Section 321A-2 of this Act, to erect, maintain or set booby blinds, stake blinds or other similar artificial blinds in said waters for the purpose of shooting wild fowl at a distance from the natural shore, at mean low-water mark, not exceeding three hundred yards and not less than five hundred yards apart measured in a straight line.

SEC. 321A-4. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to erect or maintain or set a booby blind or similar
