

vided for on the second Tuesday in June, 1917, for adoption or rejection. Provided, further, that said election or elections shall be held on said date or dates at such polling place as shall be provided in accordance with Section 20 of this Act between the hours of four and seven P. M., and the manner of submission shall be that on the ballots at this election or elections shall be printed the words "For Incorporation" with a blank square opposite at the right and the words "Against Incorporation" with a blank square opposite at the right, and all voters desiring to vote for the provisions of the previous Sections of this Act, shall place a cross mark [X] in the square opposite the words "For Incorporation" and all voters desiring to vote against the provisions of the previous sections of this act, shall put a cross [X] mark opposite the words "Against Incorporation."

If at such elections a greater number of persons shall vote "For Incorporation" than shall vote "Against Incorporation" then the provisions of the foregoing sections shall become operative.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That Oscar M. Link and Harry B. Chase are hereby appointed Judges and George B. Castle is hereby appointed clerk of elections to be held on the twelfth day of June, 1916, for the purpose of ratifying or rejecting this Charter, and should said Charter be rejected at the election held on the twelfth day of June, 1916, then in that event the above named persons shall serve in their capacities above designated at the election held on the second Tuesday in June, 1917. Should said Charter be adopted at the election held on the twelfth day of June, 1916, or at the election held on the second Tuesday in June, 1917, then and in that event, the above named persons shall constitute the board of election supervisors, provided for in Section 7 of this Act, and shall discharge the duties of said board, as provided for by Sections 7 and 8 of this Act, until such time as their successors shall have been duly appointed and qualified. It shall be the duty of the said Oscar M. Link, Harry B. Chase and George B. Castle or their successor or successors in office, to determine the qualifications and right of each voter to participate in the special elections provided for in Section 18 of this Act by asking each voter as he presents himself to cast his ballot these questions: Have you been a resident of the town of Brentwood as set forth in Section 2 of this Act for the past six months, and, second, are you a legal voter in the
