

grounds aforesaid, and any person violating this Section shall be fined not less than $25.00 and not more than $50.00, to be recovered by a Justice of the Peace, one-half of said fine to be paid the officer making the arrest and the other half to those assisting in making the arrest and in addition to the said fine the person violating this Section, as well as the craft and the entire gunning outfit, shall be deprived of the rights granted under the said ducking license for the next three succeeding gunning days, and for the said period of three gunning days the said persons, crafts and gunning outfit shall be considered to be without license; and in case of any violation of this Section, the penalty shall be the same as imposed upon persons and crafts gunning without licenses, and the said prohibition shall not be relieved or stayed by an appeal.

522. The commander of the State police force shall have, and is hereby invested with concurrent jurisdiction and authority with the board of special police, appointed by Section 516, to arrest without warrant for any violation of any of the provisions of Sections 498 to 522, inclusive.

523. If any person at any time shall use or have in his possession or sell, or dispose of, any sink boat, sneak boat, float or big or swivel gun, with the intent and for the purpose of shooting at or killing wild ducks or water fowl of any kind, in any of the waters of Harford or Baltimore County, or of the Chesapeake Bay, adjacent thereto, up to the middle of said bay, every such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction of having violated this section, shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each and every offense; and the possession, or sale, or disposition by any person or any sink boat, sneak boat or big or swivel gun, in either of said counties, or the waters aforesaid, shall be deemed prima facie evidence of its being possessed, or sold, or disposed of, with the intent and for the purpose of shooting at or killing wild ducks or other water fowl in the said waters; and any big or swivel gun found at any place in either of said counties, unclaimed, may lawfully be seized by any person and destroyed or rendered useless.

524. If any person shall shoot at or kill any wild duck or other water fowl of any kind, in any manner, whether from the shore or otherwise, in the night time, in, on or over the waters aforesaid, or the shores thereof, every such person, whether engaged therein directly or indirectly, shall be deemed