

Laws of Maryland of 1916.

MARYLAND, Sct.:

At a Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, begun and held in the City of Annapolis, on the Fifth day of January, 1916, and ending on the Third day of April, 1916, the Honorable Emerson C. Harrington being Governor of the State, the following Laws were enacted, to wit:

CHAPTER 1.

AN ACT authorizing the dissolution of the Sewerage Commission on February 1, 1916, and providing for the completion of any work of said commission not fully completed on that date.

WHEREAS, by virtue of the provisions of Chapter 349, Acts of 1904, Sewerage Commissioners were appointed to construct a Sewerage system for the City of Baltimore, and the Commissioners duly appointed have substantially completed said system and have discharged their duties and powers relative thereto, and desire to go out of office on February 1, 1916, and a further continuance of the Sewerage Commission with its officers and organization will entail an unnecessary expense upon the taxpayers of Baltimore City, Therefore SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Sewerage Commissioners be relieved and discharged from any further duties in relation to the Sewerage System of Baltimore City on February 1, 1916.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all funds which may remain on said date February 1, 1916, subject to the order of the said Sewerage Commission for use for the purposes of the construction of the Sewerage System, shall be held by the Comptroller of Baltimore City for the payment of any balances, debts and obligations incurred for said purposes by said Sewerage Commission to the same extent as if said Commission had continued in office.
