SEC. 14-B. And be it further enacted, That a meeting shall be called by the President of the Board of Game Wardens, between the first and tenth day of September, by giving a ten-day notice in one of the daily newspapers published in Allegany County, at which meeting all the licensed hunters in Allegany County shall elect by secret ballot a Board of Game Wardens for Allegany County, each licensee having one vote. Said Board is to consist of seven members, four to serve without pay, which four are to be elected first by each voter writing the names of the four men he desires on a slip of paper, said vote to be collected and counted by the officers of the meeting, and the four names receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. These four shall organize by electing a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and said Treasurer shall be required to give a bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000), for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. The other three members of the Board are next to be elected by the same method. These latter three are to be three paid Game Wardens of Allegany County. One must reside in one of the following Districts: 8, 9, 10, 15, 17, 18, 19, 25 and 27; and one must reside in one of the following Districts: 11, 12, 13, 20, 24, 26, 28 and 32; and one must reside in one of the following Districts: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 14, 16, 21, 22 and 23. The salary of these three to be determined by the licensed hunters at their annual meeting. The duties of the said board shall be to render an account for all moneys received by the clerk of the Court for License Fees, and for all the fines collected under this Act. Said moneys to be used for protecting and propagating game in Allegany County, and for any incidental expenses as may be incurred by the Board, and for the hunters' licenses and applications, and the clerk of the Court's record book for said licenses. Statements of all moneys received and expended shall be made each year at the annual meeting, prior to the election of the new members of the Board. And it is further provided that the first meeting called under this Act shall be called and presided over by Zack Laney, of Cumberland, Maryland, until the Board is organized by electing its officers.
