

in his office for that purpose, and to be open to public inspection.

28. If any certificate or note be lost or mislaid or destroyed the person entitled to receive the tobacco by virtue of such note or certificate may make oath before a justice of the peace to the effect of said note being lost and shall take a certificate to that effect from such justice of the peace to the inspector and deposit the same with him; then the inspector may deliver to such person a new note or certificate with marks, numbers, weights and date corresponding with the former note and the inspector and the said Board shall thereby be discharged from all action and demands on account of such former note or certificate.

29. No person shall be entitled to receive a new note or certificate in lieu of any note or certificate lost or mislaid unless he shall notify the inspector at whose house it was issued within twenty days after such note or certificate is first discovered to be lost or mislaid.

30. All tobacco inspected in any of the warehouses which may be condemned or stayed shall be carefully cased up and weighed and the gross weight and tare be entered upon a book kept for that purpose, together with the number of breaks in such hogshead as may be stayed, also the cause, whether for false packing, trash, order or wet.

31. All tobacco thus stayed shall, with all convenient dispatch be shaken out, reconditioned and packed under the supervision of the inspector and reweighed and entered upon the inspection books as all other tobacco.

32. The inspector shall charge for reconditioning and re-packing all stayed tobacco at the following prices, per hogshead: For one or two breaks, one dollar; for full stayed, two dollars, to be paid by the owner or his agency; and for re-inspecting and redrawing, the sum of one dollar, each to be paid by owner or his agents; and for all outage the charge shall be two dollars for every hogshead not exceeding eleven hundred pounds, and twelve and one-half cents additional on every hundred pounds over eleven hundred pounds, to be paid by the shipper of the tobacco or his agents.

32A. No inspection shall be made for any person, his, their, or her agents, other than provided in above sections, except upon payment of the charges therein provided.

33. The owner of any tobacco that may be stayed or condemned shall have the privilege of removing the same from the
