Handy, William H. Curtis, John Sanders, John Leatherbury, and such other persons as may be allowed, by a majority of them to join in the enterprise, to build and cause to be constructed on and adjoining to the public landing on the south side of Wicomico river, near White Haven, a wharf for the accommodation of steam-boats and other vessels.

CHAP. 14.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said wharf shall be deemed personal property, and shall belong to the contributors to its construction, as tenants in common according to the sum by each contributed.

Personal property.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Levy Court of Somerset county, shall have full power to make the said wharf public property, at any time, by paying the several contributors the several sums of money by each contributed, and to levy the same on the county; and when so made public property, the said Levy Court, and their successors, shall have all the rights of the original contributors, and may rent or lease the same at their pleasure, for any time not exceeding one year for any one contract; provided nevertheless, they shall not sell the same.

Power to make it a public wharf.

CHAPTER 14.

A supplement to the act, entitled, an act to authorise William Krebs, Richard Linthicum and William Linthicum, to build a bridge over Gwyn's Falls, at or near where the present bridge stands, known by the name of the Long Bridge.

Passed Jan. 11, 1837.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That nothing in the act to which this is a supplement, shall be so construed as to give to the corporate authorities of the city of Baltimore, the right to take the bridge therein named, from the said Richard and William Linthicum, their heirs or assigns, without payment of the cost of said bridge, as well as the expenses which they have now or may hereafter incur in
