

CHAP. 218. ny shall have any vote in the settlement or passing of his own account.

Property vested SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That for and in consideration of the expenses which the said stockholders will be at in cutting said canal, and in making other works for opening said navigation, and for stopping and damming the bay as aforesaid, and for keeping the same in repair, the said canal and other works, and the said inlet, with all their profits, under the limitations as aforesaid, shall be, and are hereby vested in the said corporation forever, under the limitations as aforesaid.

Rate of tolls SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said president and directors, after the said canal shall be made navigable, to demand and receive tolls at such place or places, at or on the said canal, as they may direct, not exceeding the following rates, that is to say: for every pipe, hogshead, fifteen cents; barrel three cents; every bushel of wheat or corn one cent; oats a half cent per bushel; flaxseed, beans, peas or other grain, or salt, one cent per bushel; every cord of wood twenty cents; three feet shingles twenty-five cents per thousand; every empty vessel two and a half cents per ton; and for all other commodities in the same proportion, agreeably to the articles above enumerated; and after the said inlet shall have become sufficiently deep to admit of a safe and complete navigation for vessels drawing at least four feet water, it shall and may be lawful for the said president and directors, to demand and receive tolls at such place or places on the river Saint Martin's or bay of Sinepuxent, as they may direct, not exceeding the following rates, that is to say: for every pipe, hogshead, thirty cents; barrel six cents; every bushel of wheat or corn two cents; every bushel of oats one cent; flaxseed, beans, peas or other grain, or salt, two cents per bushel; every cord of wood forty cents; three feet shingles fifty cents per thousand; every empty vessel, five cents per ton; and for all other commodities in the same proportion, agreeably to the articles above enumerated.

Tolls on Sinepuxent

Enforce payment

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That in case of neglect or refusal to pay the toll at the time of offering to pass through the said canal, or the said inlet, by the vessel passing through; he same, the collector or collectors of