

and Potomac Canal Company as aforesaid; and provided also, that if the said Annapolis and Potomac Canal Company shall become organized by the election of a president and directors at any time before the first day of January next, then the said release shall be authorised by a vote of the stockholders in general meeting, to be convened for that purpose, and executed under the common seal of the said company, and if the Attorney General shall be of opinion that the stockholders before an organization of the company, cannot lawfully execute a release for the purposes aforesaid, then the said stockholders who have already subscribed to the stock of said company, shall have power to elect a president and directors, and organize said company under the direction of the commissioners appointed to receive subscriptions to said stock, in the manner prescribed by the act to incorporate the Annapolis and Potomac Canal Company, and the supplements thereto; and provided also, that the subscription on the part of this State hereinbefore authorised and mentioned, shall not be made until the Attorney General of this State shall certify in writing to the Governor and Council, that the State is fully discharged from all and every obligation or promise to the Annapolis and Potomac Canal Company.

CHAP. 299.

Or if said C. co. organize

Their release

Proceedings to obtain, authorised

Attorney's certificate

CHAPTER 299.

An act to incorporate Woodsboro, in Frederick county. Passed Mar. 21, 1837.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the citizens of Woodsboro, in Frederick county, shall be, and they are hereby constituted and made a body corporate by the name of the Burgess and Commissioners of Woodsboro, with all the privileges of a body corporate, and to have a common seal and perpetual succession.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the free white male citizens of Woodsboro aforesaid, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, and having resided in the said town for and during the space of twelve months next preceeding the election, shall on the first Monday of April next, at the house now occupied as a tavern by

Election of Burgess and Commissioners