

CHAP. 310.

Treasurer—bond

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the said burgess shall be the treasurer for the said corporation, and shall give bond in the name of the State of Maryland, for the benefit of said corporation, with security to be approved by the said commissioners, in such penalty as they shall fix, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duty as treasurer, and the said bond may be put in suit in the name of the State, for the use of the commissioners of Taney town, as commissioners; and the said burgess as treasurer shall receive and pay away, all money that he may be directed to receive and pay away by the ordinances to be passed by the said commissioners or a majority of them.

Town limits

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the limits of the said town, for all purposes, except taxation, shall be as follows: beginning at the South West corner of lot number one, at the public square of the town; thence in a straight line to a stone planted at the fork of the road leading from Taney town to Westminster and Union town; thence a straight line to a branch where it crosses the main road leading from Taney town to Frederick town, at Ludwick Rudise's tan yard, and down the bed of said branch to its intersection with Spark's run; thence a straight line to Piney Run, where said run crosses the main road, leading from Taney town to Gettysburg; thence a straight line to a spring run, where said run crosses the main road leading from Taney town to Little's town, where said run passes into John McKalebs meadow, thence a straight line to a stone planted at the fork of the roads leading from Taney town to Westminster and Union town; thence in a straight line to the place of beginning; and that the taxable limits of the said town shall be as follows: including all that part of the town now improved, or which the citizens may at any time hereafter improve.

CHAPTER 310.

Passed Mar. 22, 1837. An act for the payment of the Journal of Accounts.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it appears by the journal of accounts of this session, that there is due from this State, the several sums as follows to wit: to the Electors of Senate of