Buyers' Guide and Reference Department

Advertisements of leading houses in all lines where more information than is possible to give under the headings is placed on file for Buyers' Reference, the value of which department cannot be over estimated. It is an index to the best business interests of the city, and stands for them and the city in reference libraries all over the country as well as on the desks of progressive business men. It is accessible to everybody and the logical place to look for specific information. This probably explains why no other form of publicity is so generally endorsed by business men as a glance at this department will show.

MISCELLANEOUS SECTION—(page 25), containing Municipal and County Government information, Educational and Charitable Institutions, Churches, Fraternal, Secret and Benevolent Societies, etc.

STREET and AVENUE GUIDE and DIRECTORY of HOUSEHOLDERS—(page 37), showing all streets and avenues with starting point and intersections, enabling one to tell at once between what streets a given number lies, consequently the quickest way to get there. Also the names of heads of houses and of all businesses and professions.

ALPHABETICAL SECTION—(page 75), gives names, occupations and addresses of all men twenty years old or over, together with wife's name where married, also widows with given name of husband. Full copartnership and corporation information is contained in this department, together with complete business and professional information. Names in large type are those who realize the value of placing themselves where they may be speedily and conveniently found.

CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY—(page 223). All business houses, individuals in business for themselves, and professional men are listed without charge under the heading that best describes them. The more progressive houses, realizing that it pays to be easily found, pay a nominal charge for special listings in heavy type, under every heading where a buyer might look for them, cross indexed to a descriptive space in the "Buyers' Guide." More goods are bought and sold through Classified Directories than through any other medium.

RURAL ROUTES—from Annapolis Post Office (page 265).
