73. No section or provision of this Article, or any part thereof, shall be deemed to be repealed, altered or amended by any statute passed by the Legislature, unless such statute explicitly refers to this Article as the militia law, or by its other titles, as part of the general laws of the State, and explicitly repeals, alters or amends the same or some part thereof.

74. All enlisted men who qualify in accordance with requirements of the course prescribed by order of the Government and Commander-in-Chief in small arms practice shall be entitled to the following increase in the pay of his grade during the year succeeding the season of said qualifications and beginning on January first following, and, provided, further, that said enlisted man, qualified as aforesaid, shall be present at the annual inspection of his organization next succeeding said qualifications:

Experts, twenty per cent;

Sharpshooters, fifteen per cent;

Marksmen, ten per cent.

75. All armories owned by the State of Maryland, and all buildings occupied, leased or rented by or in behalf of the State military forces as may now or hereafter be authorized by law, shall be under the management and control of the State Armory Commission hereby created. Said Commission shall consist of the Governor, the Adjutant General and the Comptroller. Said Commission shall be vested with the management, care, control and maintenance of the armories and other buildings aforesaid, together with all power and authority necessary or desirable for such purposes, and with the right to make and enforce all reasonable rules and regulations.

Nothing in the Act of 1918, Chapter 143, shall be construed to interfere with or abrogate the duties or powers of building commissions and committees created for the purposes of constructing and equipping armories authorized by the laws of the State. Any monies in the hand of or due to the Board of Trustees of the Fifth Regiment shall be paid to the State Armory Commission.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Article are hereby repealed.
